

JAI HIND COLLEGE

Basantsing Institute of Science & J. T. Lalvani College of Commerce.

And Sheila Gopal Raheja College of Management

Affiliated to University of Mumbai

Autonomous

Bachelor of Arts [(B.A. Philosophy (Part Major))]

Semester I

Course Code: APHI101	Course Title: Moral Philosophy
---------------------------------	---------------------------------------

Learning Objectives:

- (a) to Acquaint students to be able to explain traditional and classical ethical positions accurately, apply and defend objections to these positions.
 - (b) to make them Learn to recognize and articulate fundamental questions about understand influential attempts to answer fundamental moral questions, along with evaluating their advantages and disadvantages.
3. To Provide accurate accounts of philosophical ideas with supporting details relevant to the course in the context of criticizing or assessing those ideas.

Learning Outcomes:

- 1. T explain traditional and classical ethical positions accurately, apply and defend objections to these positions.
 - (b) recognize and articulate fundamental questions about understand influential attempts to answer fundamental moral questions, along with evaluating their advantages and disadvantages.
3. Implement philosophical ideas with supporting details relevant to the course in the context of criticizing or assessing those ideas.

Semester II

Course Code: APHI201	Course Title: Moral Philosophy
---------------------------------	---------------------------------------

Learning Objectives:

- (a) to Acquaint students to be able to explain traditional and contemporary ethical positions accurately, apply and defend objections to these positions
 - (b) to train Students to explain and discriminate between major approaches to moral philosophy and to summarize and evaluate the views of at least one philosopher associated with each.
3. To make them Understanding of concepts of right, wrong, good and bad; understanding of moral principles and their application in everyday life.

Learning Outcomes:

- (a) explain traditional and contemporary ethical positions accurately, apply and defend objections to these positions
 - (b) discriminate between major approaches to moral philosophy and to summarize and evaluate the views of at least one philosopher associated with each.
3. Use concepts of right, wrong, good and bad; understanding of moral principles and their application in everyday life.

Semester III

Course Code: APHI301	Course Title: Social Philosophy
---------------------------------------	--

Learning Objectives

To train students with using four strands of inquiry, philosophical perspectives and applied philosophy.

To train them about topics and debates in social philosophy.

TO mak ethem aware about reasoning in philosophy.

Learning Outcomes:

- 1.use four strands of inquiry, philosophical perspectives and applied philosophy.
- 2.Differentiate topics and debates in social philosophy.
- 3.Resolve problems on reasoning in philosophy.

Semester III

Course Code: APHI302	Course Title: Philosophy of Religion
---------------------------------------	---

Learning Objectives:

- 1) To introduce students to a reasoned, systematic about religious beliefs
- 2) To develop in students the capacity for analytical and critical thinking about such matters
- 3)to train students with critical reflection about religious beliefs

Learning Outcomes:

- 1) differentiate reasoned, systematic about religious beliefs
- 2) use knowledge for analytical and critical thinking about such matters
- 3) summarize critical reflection about religious beliefs

Semester IV

Course Code: APHI401	Course Title: Political Philosophy
---------------------------------	---

Learning Objectives

1. To acquaint students with the basic philosophical questions and issues that are current in political philosophy.
2. To equip students with argumentative and analytical skills involved in philosophizing through these issues.

To encourage a spirit of rationality in philosophizing while appreciating and respecting differing philosophical ideas and perspectives.

Learning Outcomes:

1. define basic philosophical questions and issues that are current in political philosophy.
2. Practice argumentative and analytical skills involved in philosophizing through these issues.
3. Resolve problem on spirit of rationality in philosophizing while appreciating and respecting differing philosophical ideas and perspectives.

Semester IV

Course Code: APHI402	Course Title: Greek Philosophy
---------------------------------	---------------------------------------

Learning Objectives:

- a) To acquaint students with the basic philosophical questions that philosophers in the Greek philosophical traditions have addressed.
- b) To equip students with argumentative and analytical skills involved in philosophical reasoning.

To encourage a spirit of rationality in philosophizing while appreciating and respecting differing philosophical systems and perspectives.

Learning Outcome:

- a) apply knowledge on basic philosophical questions that philosophers in the Greek philosophical traditions have addressed.
 - b) summarize argumentative and analytical approaches involved in philosophical reasoning.
3. Use knowledge on spirit of rationality in philosophizing while appreciating and respecting differing philosophical systems and perspectives.

Semester V

Course Code: APHI501	Course Title: Orthodox Schools of Indian Philosophy
---------------------------------	--

Learning Objectives:

- To introduce students to the nature of philosophical questions and thinking present in classical Indian thought
- To provide a systematic and rational interpretation of philosophical issues addressed in classical Indian thought
- To trace the development of philosophical ideas in different schools so as to evaluate their contribution to philosophical knowledge

Learning Outcomes:

1. Practice the core and advanced philosophical themes of classical Indian schools of philosophy
2. Interpret philosophical issues addressed in classical Indian thought
3. Develop philosophical ideas in different schools so as to evaluate their contribution to philosophical knowledge

Semester V

Course Code: APHI502	Course Title: Philosophy of Religion
---------------------------------------	---

Learning Objectives:

- To introduce students to a reasoned, systematic and critical reflection about religious beliefs
 - To develop in students the capacity for analytical approach of a matter .
- To train them in critical thinking about such matters.

Learning Outcomes:

1. Define religious concepts through the lens of critical analysis
2. Practice analytical approach
3. Solve problems on critical reflection about religious beliefs

Semester V

Course Code: APHI503	Course Title: Living Ethical Issues
---------------------------------	--

Learning Objectives:

- To train them to reflect on real world ethical questions and the issues they raise, and to discuss those issues in an informed way.
 - To demonstrate an ability to recognize, articulate, and apply ethical principles in various academic, professional, social, or personal contexts.
- To sensitize them with rules of ethics in social context.

Learning Outcomes:

Practice ethical analysis of contemporary global issues
Use knowledge to solve ethical questions
Demonstate examples on ethical issues in social context.

Semester VI

Course Code: APHI601	Course Title: Modern Western Philosophy
---------------------------------	--

Learning Objectives:

1. To make them understand with important philosophers from the modern period of philosophy in the west
2. To train them with a few philosophers and movements in 20th century western philosophy
3. To ensitize them with some of the arguments, problems and questions central to metaphysics and epistemology in modern philosophy

Learning Outcomes:

1. Use knowledge about important philosophers from the modern period of philosophy in the west
2. Refer examples on movements in 20th century western philosophy
3. practice arguments, problems and questions central to metaphysics and epistemology in modern philosophy

Semester VI

Course Code: APHI602	Course Title: Philosophy of Religion
---------------------------------	---

Learning Objectives

1. To introduce students to a reasoned, systematic and critical reflection about religious beliefs
2. To develop in students the capacity for analytical and critical thinking about such matters
3. To train them in dealing with reasoned beliefs

Learning Outcomes:

1. Define reasoned, systematic and critical reflection about religious beliefs

2. Practice analytical and critical thinking about such matters
3. Solve problems on reasoned beliefs

Semester VI

Course Code: APHI603	Course Title: : Living Ethical Issues
---------------------------------	--

Learning Objectives:

1. To reflect on real world ethical questions and the issues they raise, and to discuss those issues in an informed way.
2. To demonstrate an ability to recognize, articulate, and apply ethical principles in various academic, professional or personal contexts
3. To clarify ethical principles on social context.

Learning Outcomes:

1. Analyse real world ethical questions and the issues they raise, and to discuss those issues in an informed way.
2. demonstrate an ability to recognize, articulate, and apply ethical principles in various academic, professional or personal contexts
3. Practice ethical principles on social context.